

Alec Jensen

6/4/18

Style Guide Week 6

Body: Will contain the 4 different escape rooms with both links to their internal pages and descriptions as well as a brief introduction to their room with possible a correlating picture next to them.

Paragraphs: 4 different paragraphs of all the 4 escape rooms at this escape room and descriptions of each one.

Headers: At the top it will have the logo in the left corner with the hyperlinks to all the pages they can access. As well as the all the hyperlinks to each page will have a header of some sort.

Lists: Lists will include the 4 different escape rooms and the descriptions and pre-requisites for each room (age limit, max capacity for this room, how difficult, etc)

Tables: Tables will include will be for prices, questions and answers in the faq pages, and for the scoreboard which will be placed on the about page.

Divs: The “div” sections will be for the 4 different escape rooms for the rooms, it will also be for the faqs that will lead them to the price, and scoreboard areas, and lastly in the about section about who we are and how we can help you out more.

Links: The links will help you get back to home page and to navigate yourself from page to page.

Desired Fonts: Olga Font, Saint Helens, Montserrat, more will come throughout semester

Margins: All Margins should either be left aligned or center aligned. None shall be justified or right aligned.

Weights: For like headers or links, the fonts should be a little weighted and give a little emphasis to whole website.

Colors: #ce1a1a, #d6c062, #2a50cc, #2acc55, #000000

Borders: Borders should be for line breaks in between answers for tables.

Sizes: All sizes should be incorporated according how they flow with the whole page.

Line Height: Line height should not matter as much, but if it does it should be accounted for.

Padding: Only add padding when truly needed.

Background Color: Background should be light gray or white gray.